Substance of Interview including description of the general nature of what was agreed to if an agreement was reached, or any other comments: The applicant discussed the invention with respect to local recording in response to an incoming input as opposed to the remote recording of Abecassis. It appears that the proposed amendment overcomes Abecassis. The applicant will file a formal response.

(A fuller description, if necessary, and a copy of the amendments which the examiner agreed would render the claims allowable, if available, must be attached. Also, where no copy of the amendments that would render the claims allowable is available, a summary thereof must be attached.)

THE FORMAL WRITTEN REPLY TO THE LAST OFFICE ACTION MUST INCLUDE THE SUBSTANCE OF THE INTERVIEW. (See MPEP Section 713.04). If a reply to the last Office action has already been filed, APPLICANT IS GIVEN A NON-EXTENDABLE PERIOD OF THE LONGER OF ONE MONTH OR THIRTY DAYS FROM THIS INTERVIEW DATE, OR THE MAILING DATE OF THIS INTERVIEW SUMMARY FORM, WHICHEVER IS LATER, TO FILE A STATEMENT OF THE SUBSTANCE OF THE INTERVIEW. ## Summary of Record of Interview Requirements

Manual of Patent Examining Procedure (MPEP), Section 713.04, Substance of Interview Must be Made of Record

A complete written statement as to the substance of any face-to-face, video conference, or telephone interview with regard to an application must be made of record in the application whether or not an agreement with the examiner was reached at the interview.

Title 37 Code of Federal Regulations (CFR) § 1.133 Interviews

Paragraph (b)

In every instance where reconsideration is requested in view of an interview with an examiner, a complete written statement of the reasons presented at the interview as warranting favorable action must be filed by the applicant. An interview does not remove the necessity for reply to Office action as specified in §§ 1.111, 1.135. (35 U.S.C. 132)

37 CFR §1.2 Business to be transacted in writing.

All business with the Patent or Trademark Office should be transacted in writing. The personal attendance of applicants or their attorneys or agents at the Patent and Trademark Office is unnecessary. The action of the Patent and Trademark Office will be based exclusively on the written record in the Office. No attention will be paid to any alleged oral promise, stipulation, or understanding in relation to which there is disagreement or doubt.

The action of the Patent and Trademark Office cannot be based exclusively on the written record in the Office if that record is itself incomplete through the failure to record the substance of interviews.

It is the responsibility of the applicant or the attorney or agent to make the substance of an interview of record in the application file, unless the examiner indicates he or she will do so. It is the examiner's responsibility to see that such a record is made and to correct material inaccuracies which bear directly on the question of patentability.

Examiners must complete an Interview Summary Form for each interview held where a matter of substance has been discussed during the interview by checking the appropriate boxes and filling in the blanks. Discussions regarding only procedural matters, directed solely to restriction requirements for which interview recordation is otherwise provided for in Section 812.01 of the Manual of Patent Examining Procedure, or pointing out typographical errors or unreadable script in Office actions or the like, are excluded from the interview recordation procedures below. Where the substance of an interview is completely recorded in an Examiners Amendment, no separate Interview Summary Record is required.

The Interview Summary Form shall be given an appropriate Paper No., placed in the right hand portion of the file, and listed on the "Contents" section of the file wrapper. In a personal interview, a duplicate of the Form is given to the applicant (or attorney or agent) at the conclusion of the interview. In the case of a telephone or video-conference interview, the copy is mailed to the applicant's correspondence address either with or prior to the next official communication. If additional correspondence from the examiner is not likely before an allowance or if other circumstances dictate, the Form should be mailed promptly after the interview rather than with the next official communication.

The Form provides for recordation of the following information:

- Application Number (Series Code and Serial Number)
- Name of applicant
- Name of examiner
- Date of interview
- Type of interview (telephonic, video-conference, or personal)
- Name of participant(s) (applicant, attorney or agent, examiner, other PTO personnel, etc.)
- An indication whether or not an exhibit was shown or a demonstration conducted
- An identification of the specific prior art discussed
- An indication whether an agreement was reached and if so, a description of the general nature of the agreement (may be by attachment of a copy of amendments or claims agreed as being allowable). Note: Agreement as to allowability is tentative and does not restrict further action by the examiner to the contrary.
- The signature of the examiner who conducted the interview (if Form is not an attachment to a signed Office action)

It is desirable that the examiner orally remind the applicant of his or her obligation to record the substance of the interview of each case. It should be noted, however, that the Interview Summary Form will not normally be considered a complete and proper recordation of the interview unless it includes, or is supplemented by the applicant or the examiner to include, all of the applicable items required below concerning the substance of the interview.

A complete and proper recordation of the substance of any interview should include at least the following applicable items:

- 1) A brief description of the nature of any exhibit shown or any demonstration conducted,
- 2) an identification of the claims discussed,
- 3) an identification of the specific prior art discussed,
- 4) an identification of the principal proposed amendments of a substantive nature discussed, unless these are already described on the Interview Summary Form completed by the Examiner,
- 5) a brief identification of the general thrust of the principal arguments presented to the examiner,
(The identification of arguments need not be lengthy or elaborate. A verbatim or highly detailed description of the arguments is not required. The identification of the arguments is sufficient if the general nature or thrust of the principal arguments made to the examiner can be understood in the context of the application file. Of course, the applicant may desire to emphasize and fully describe those arguments which he or she feels were or might be persuasive to the examiner.)
- 6) a general indication of any other pertinent matters discussed, and
- 7) if appropriate, the general results or outcome of the interview unless already described in the Interview Summary Form completed by the examiner.

Examiners are expected to carefully review the applicant's record of the substance of an interview. If the record is not complete and accurate, the examiner will give the applicant an extendable one month time period to correct the record.

Examiner to Check for Accuracy

If the claims are allowable for other reasons of record, the examiner should send a letter setting forth the examiner's version of the statement attributed to him or her. If the record is complete and accurate, the examiner should place the indication, "Interview Record OK" on the paper recording the substance of the interview along with the date and the examiner's initials.

INTERRUPTING THE OUTPUT OF MEDIA CONTENT IN RESPONSE TO AN EVENT

Serial No. 09/993,795

Attorney Docket No. 14531.124

Examiner Sumaiya A. Chowdhury

Interview April 18, 2007 at 3:00pm

pausing display of

1. (Currently Amended) In a computing device having an associated output device and that is communicatively connected with at least one other device comprising one or more of a telephone device, a motion detector or a computing device, a method for automatically ~~executing an interruption operation on~~ media content in response to an event associated with said other device, comprising the acts of:

as media content is obtained from a content source and output by the output device, detecting a first event associated with said other device, indicating that the output of the media content is to be modified, wherein said first event comprises at least one of a telephone related event, the receipt of an email or detection that a viewer has left a viewing area; and in response to detecting the first event, ~~and while maintaining a connection with the content source and while continuing to receive the media content from the content source,~~ automatically <sup>a pause</sup> executing an interruption operation on the media content such that the output of the media content is modified and can be later restored without loss of continuity of the media output.

NOTE #1: To simplify the discussion, I have only presented claim 1 above. Independent claims 25 and 37 generally correspond to the method of claim 1 and will include amendments similar to any made with respect to claim 1. Claim 37 will also be amended as suggested in the Office Action to replace "carrying" with "encoded with."

NOTE #2: As reflected above, the claims generally relate to automatically interrupting content in response to one or more indicators. For example, content may be automatically interrupted by a telephone event, an email, or upon detecting that a user has left a viewing area of the content. When the content is interrupted, an interruption operation is automatically executed in a way that allows it to be later restored without loss of continuity and in a manner that maintains a connection with the content provider such that content is being received while the display of the content is interrupted.

While Abercassis and Perlman generally relate to interrupting media, it appears that they fail to disclose that when the media is interrupted, the connection with the content source is maintained so as to continue receiving content. For example, Abercassis discloses a system that includes a pausing means which automatically pauses the retrieval of content. (Col. 51, ll. 40-54). For example, when a user picks up a telephone call, content retrieved from a content server may be paused by transmitting to the video server an appropriate pause command. (Col. 52, ll. 33-41, 49-56). Thus, a pause command in Abercassis stops retrieval of the content, whereas the pending claims recite that the system continues to receive content throughout the pause command.

Similarly, Perlman discloses that when media is interrupted, the client device is disconnected from a modem pool connecting the client to the content source. (Col. 6, ll. 29-55)
